Fumi Nagasaka
Untitled Youth

October 2016

Untitled Youth portrays Fumi Nagasaka's ongoing journey seeking for an unexpected beauty of youth. Mostly from the streets of New York, Berlin, England and Stockholm, every person documented in this book is fuelled by a very rare honesty that conveys a feeling of purity, typical of Fumi's photography.

As Robbie Spencer, creative director of Dazed & Confused, said, Untitled Youth is "an honest representation of youth, a moment in time during adolescence when things are pure".

Fumi Nagasaka is a New York based photographer, born in Nagoya, Japan. While spending time in NY and travelling around Europe, Fumi works on her personal documentary projects and shoots for several notorious fashion magazines: Dazed & Confused, V Magazine, AnOther and many more. Known as well for her street casting, Fumi Nagasaka's photography balances the line between street subculture and the artifice of fashion.
